

AGRIMONY

Agrimonia Eupatoria

- It is a perennial.
- It has small star shaped yellow flowers that are apricot scented.
- Leaves are serrated being green above and greyish beneath.
- Plant is green with numerous soft hairs.
- Seed capsules are burrs which will attach themselves to pet fur and clothing.
- Is widely used for medicinal purposes.
- Can be grown in dry soil but it will require water during dry periods.
- Prefers full sunlight.
- Can grow in a variety of soil types.
- Sow in spring outdoors.
- Germination of seeds can be speeded up by storing seeds in the damp soil within the fridge for six weeks prior to planting.
- It will self seed.

Approximately 61 seeds per gram