

CHAMOMILE

Matricaria

German – Produces tiny daisy flowers which are white with a yellow center. It has an apple scent. Will flower from late spring to late summer. This variety is great for containers. Can be grown in most climates. Requires full sun. Sow inside ten weeks before last frost. Sow outside in spring as soon as the soil can be worked. Germination is between 10 – 15 days. This variety can be harvested 55 – 65 days after sowing

Aprox. 16,000 seeds per gram

Mayweed – This variety is also known as dog fennel. This is a bushy plant. It is an upright plant that grows to reach between 30 – 39cm high and wide. Flowers are white and have a yellow middle. This variety is germinates in early spring. This variety grows well in most climates. Requires sunlight and partial shade. Plant seeds in spring. Pick flowers as they appear.

Aprox. 16,000 seeds per gram

