

RHODOCHITON ATROSANGUINEUM

Purple Rain

- Leaves are angular, heart shaped and green
- Flowers are long, tubular and dark purple with a cup shaped rose calyces
- This variety is a vine that is excellent in tropical regions
- Requires full sun
- Requires a rich, well drained soil
- Sow from late winter to early spring
- Sow seeds in containers
- Transplant when large enough into pots
- Gradually acclimatise to outdoor conditions for 10 – 15 days before planting out after all risk of frost
- 12 - 40 days for germination

Sold in seedcount